

HOW VOTERS CAN SUBMIT THEIR FPCA FEDERAL POST CARD APPLICATION

- MAIL
- MAIL & EMAIL
- MAIL & EMAIL & FAX

ALASKA

HAWAII

GUAM

AMERICAN SAMOA

VIRGIN ISLANDS

PUERTO RICO

- * Arizona and South Carolina – Online tool also available.
- * California – To register to vote, voter must mail or fax the FPCA. If already registered and using the FPCA to update your registration information, voter can mail, email, or fax the FPCA.
- * Florida, Idaho, South Dakota, and Wisconsin – To register to vote, voter must mail the FPCA. If already registered to vote and using the FPCA to request an absentee ballot, the voter can mail, email, or fax the FPCA.
- * Maryland – Online registration system also available. To register to vote, voter must mail the FPCA or use Maryland's online system. If already registered to vote and using the FPCA to request an absentee ballot, voter can mail, email, or fax the FPCA or use Maryland's online system.
- * Nevada, North Carolina, and Utah – Online registration system also available.
- * New York – If voter emails or faxes the FPCA, voter must also mail the FPCA.
- * Texas – A timely faxed FPCA must be followed by a hardcopy mailed FPCA that must be received by the early voting clerk by the fourth business day after the fax. This rule does not apply to an emailed FPCA. Texas strongly recommends using email transmission instead of faxing if you wish to use the fastest delivery method for your FPCA.