If you do not receive your absentee ballot from your state in time to return it to your election official to participate in the election, use the FWAB.

Registering and requesting your absentee ballot

Section 1 Select the category that best describes you.

Enter your current name (Last, First). If you are registered under a different name, provide this information in the previous name area.

Your date of birth is required.

Haven't received your ballot? Use the Federal Write-In Absentee Ballot

The Federal Write-In Absentee Ballot (FWAB) can be used to register to vote. If you are using the FWAB to register, it must be received by the registration deadline listed in the "Federal Election Deadlines" chart.

You can use the FWAB to vote in all elections for federal and state offices as well as ballot measures.

Complete the following sections of the FWAB's voter information page

Section 1 Select the category that best describes you.

Enter your current name (Last, First). If you are registered under a different name, provide this information in the previous name area.

Section 2 Enter the complete street address of your voting residence where you are registering to vote and requesting an absentee ballot. You cannot use a post office box mailing address. If your address is a rural route, use Section 6 to describe the location of your voting residence.

Vote your FWAB

To vote, write in either a candidate's name or political party for each office. You are not required to make a selection for each and every contest.

Maine election law provides for the use of Ranked Choice Voting (RCV) if three or more candidates have qualified to be listed on the ballot for an office. For a primary election, RCV is used for all federal offices (President, U.S. Senator and Representative to Congress) and members of the state legislature (state senator and representative to the legislature). For general elections, RCV is used only for federal offices. You may rank as many or as few candidates as you would like. Place a number "1" next to the name of the candidate who is your first choice, the number "2" next to the name of the candidate who is your second choice, and so on. For more information, visit <https://www.maine.gov/sos/cec/elec/>.
